Many people have climbed Mount Everest after Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay. The youngest person to reach the top was Temba Tsheri Sherpa. His first try was in 2000 when he was 15 years old. He was only 22 meters from the top, but he didn't finish because there was very bad weather. Then Temba was successful on his second try. He climbed the mountain on May 23, 2001. He was only 16 years old!
